MISSOULA--

The University of Montana's annual alumni football game is set for May 13 at Dornblaser Stadium. Kick-off is at 1:30 p.m.

According to UM assistant football coach Pat Dolan, several former Grizzlies have already agreed to play in the game. Dolan is game coordinator and is being assisted by former Grizzlies Casey Reilly and Robin Peters, both of Missoula.

Reilly is one of four former players who will also serve on the alumni coaching staff. He will coach the offensive backs, Mick Dennehy will coach the offensive line, Glenn Schmasow will coach the defensive backs and Larry Stranahan will coach the defensive line.

Any former Grizzly football player who would like to play in the game or attend the game as a spectator should contact Pat Dolan at the University of Montana Athletic Department. Dolan said all former players are invited to participate in the weekend reunion.
